

Citizens' Advisory Committees

The superintendent and/or board may appoint ad hoc citizens' advisory committees to establish interaction with the community about selected issues. The superintendent and/or board may also assign them to perform such duties as may be deemed appropriate. Any such committee may be designated to conduct an educational study in the fields of finance, personnel, curriculum, facilities, technology or such other fields as deemed necessary.

The superintendent shall apprise the board regarding a committee's functions, findings, and recommendations, including the cost of the plan and the status of the recommendations.

The superintendent shall establish procedures for the operation of advisory committees.
